GENERAL INFORMATION

Purpose of Annual Meeting

The purposes of the Annual Meeting are to seek shareholder approval of the following proposals, each by separate resolution:

1. To re-elect, by separate resolutions, each of the following five (5) members of our board of directors (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") to serve for a one-year term until the next annual general meeting ("Proposal No. 1");
 - a. Ron Sade
 - b. Alyazi Saeed Ahmad Alkhattal Almheri
 - c. Erez Simha
 - d. Tariq Salem Ebraheem Alsaman Alnuaimi
 - e. Keren Maimon
2. To ratify the appointment of Reliant CPA PC as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2026 ("Proposal No. 2");
3. To approve, the re-appointment of the Company's statutory auditor and the authorization of the Board to fix the remuneration of the statutory auditors ("Proposal No. 3");
4. To consider the Company's financial statements and the report of the directors and the report of the statutory auditors on those statements, following a review of the Company's affairs; and
5. To transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

The Board recommends a vote FOR each of Proposal No. 1, Proposal No. 2 and Proposal No. 3.

Will there be any other items of business on the agenda?

The Board knows of no other matters that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. Nonetheless, in case there is an unforeseen need, the accompanying proxy gives discretionary authority to the persons named on the proxy with respect to any other matters that might be brought before the Annual Meeting or at any postponement or adjournment of the Annual Meeting. Those persons intend to vote that proxy in accordance with their judgment. If for any reason any of the nominees are not available as candidates for director, and our Board has not determined or reduced the authorized maximum number of directors on our Board (being fourteen pursuant to the Articles of Association of the Company (the "Articles")), the persons named as proxy holders will vote your proxy for such other candidate or candidates as may be nominated by the Board.

Who is entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting?

Only shareholders of record of our Class A Ordinary Shares, $0.50 nominal value per share (the “Class A Ordinary Shares”), and Class B Ordinary Shares, $0.50 nominal value per share (the “Class B Ordinary Shares” and together with the Class A Ordinary Shares, the “Ordinary Shares”), as of the close of business on June 1, 2026 (the “Record Date”) are entitled to notice and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof.

Each fully paid Class A Ordinary Share is entitled to ten votes on each matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting and each fully paid Class B Ordinary Share is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting. The enclosed proxy card or voting instruction form shows the number of shares you are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Shareholder of Record: Shares Registered in Your Name

If on the Record Date your shares were registered directly in your name with the Company, then you are a shareholder of record. As a shareholder of record, you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting or vote by proxy. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, to ensure your vote is counted, we encourage you to vote either by Internet or by filling out and returning the enclosed proxy card, as set out in further detail in the section entitled ‘How do I vote?’ on page 3 of this proxy statement.

Beneficial Owner: Shares Registered in the Name of a Broker or Bank

If on the Record Date your shares were held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, dealer, or other similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in “street name” and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or other agent on how to vote the shares in your account. Your broker will not be able to vote your shares unless your broker receives specific voting instructions from you. We strongly encourage you to vote.

What constitutes a quorum?

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid Annual Meeting. In order to establish a quorum at our Annual Meeting, there must be three or more shareholders of record, entitled to attend and vote at the relevant record date, present in person or by proxy and such persons shall constitute a quorum. This can include the company designated proxy. If a quorum is not present, the Annual Meeting will be adjourned or postponed until a quorum is obtained.

How are votes counted?

Votes will be counted by the inspector of election appointed by the Board for the Annual Meeting, who will separately count votes “FOR”, “AGAINST”, abstentions and, if applicable, broker non-votes. You may vote “FOR”, “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN” with respect to the proposals presented. With respect to Proposal No. 1, a vote “FOR” will be counted in favor of a director nominee and a vote “AGAINST” will be counted against a director nominee. A vote “FOR” will be counted in favor of Proposal No. 2 and a vote “AGAINST” will be counted against Proposal No. 2. A vote “FOR” will be counted in favor of Proposal No. 3 and a vote “AGAINST” will be counted against Proposal No. 3. An “ABSTAIN” vote will not be counted “FOR” or “AGAINST” and will have no effect on the voting results for the proposals in this notice. The inspector of election appointed for the Annual Meeting will monitor all votes and assist us in tabulating the votes. Any resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by poll, in such manner as the Chair directs.

What if I am a beneficial owner and do not give voting instructions to my broker?

If your shares are held by a broker in “street name,” your brokerage firm may vote your shares on certain “routine” matters if you do not provide voting instructions. The ratification of an independent registered public accounting firm and the re-appointment of the Company’s statutory auditor and the authorization of the Board to fix the remuneration of the statutory auditors are examples of routine matters. If you do not provide voting instructions, your brokerage firm may either vote your shares on routine matters or leave your shares unvoted. When a brokerage firm votes its customers’ shares on a routine matter without receiving voting instructions, these shares are counted both for establishing a quorum to conduct business at the meeting and in determining the number of shares voted for or against the routine matter. A brokerage firm cannot vote your shares on non-routine matters, such as the election of directors. If your brokerage firm has not received voting instructions on a non-routine matter, these shares will be considered “broker non-votes” to the extent that the brokerage firm submits a proxy.

How are abstentions and broker non-votes counted?

Abstentions will be treated as present for purposes of determining a quorum. Abstentions will have no effect on the election of directors, the ratification of an independent registered public accounting firm or the re-appointment of the statutory auditors and the authorization of the Board to set the statutory auditor’s remuneration.

Broker non-votes are counted for purposes of establishing a quorum. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals for the election of directors. Discretionary voting by a broker will be permitted for the proposal for the ratification of an independent registered public accounting firm.

What is the vote required to approve the proposals?

Proposal 1 (Election of Directors). The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to each resolution to elect a director nominee to serve as a director for a 1-year term is required for the election of Ron Sade, Alyazi Saeed Ahmad Alkhattal Almheiri, Erez Simha, Tariq Salem Ebraheem Alsaman Alnuaimi and Keren Maimon. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of the nominees because they are not considered to be votes cast. If you return your signed proxy but do not indicate your voting preferences, your shares will be voted on your behalf “FOR” each of the resolutions in Proposal 1.

Proposal 2 (Registered Independent Accountant Appointment). The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required for the approval of this proposal. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal because they are not considered to be votes cast. If you return your signed proxy but do not indicate your voting preferences, your shares will be voted on your behalf “FOR” Proposal 2.

Proposal 3 (Statutory Auditor Re-Appointment and Authorization of Board to Fix Remuneration). The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required for the approval of this proposal. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal because they are not considered to be votes cast. If you return your signed proxy but do not indicate your voting preferences, your shares will be voted on your behalf “FOR” Proposal 3.

How do I vote?

Your shares may only be voted at the Annual Meeting if you are present in person or are represented by proxy. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, we encourage you to vote by proxy to ensure that your shares will be represented.

Shareholders of record may vote using any of the following methods:

- By Internet. You may vote by using the Internet in accordance with the instructions included in the proxy card. The Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate shareholders’ identities, to allow shareholders to vote their shares and to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded.

- By Mail. Shareholders of record as of the Record Date may submit proxies by completing, signing and dating their proxy cards (or proxy form set out in section 184 of the Irish Companies Act 2014) and mailing them in the accompanying pre-addressed envelopes provided with your proxy card (which will be forwarded to the Company's registered address) or by delivery to the Company Secretary at Brera Holdings plc, Connaught House, 5th Floor, One Burlington Road, Dublin 4, D04 C5Y6. Shareholders who hold shares beneficially in street name may provide voting instructions by mail by completing, signing and dating the voting instruction forms provided by their brokers, banks or other nominees and mailing them in the accompanying pre-addressed envelopes.
- In person at the Meeting. By submitting a written ballot in person at the Annual Meeting. We will distribute ballots at the meeting to anyone who wishes to vote in person.

If your ordinary shares are held through a bank, broker or other nominee, please follow the voting instructions provided by such bank, broker or other nominee in order for your shares to be voted. If you do not give instructions to your bank, broker or other nominee, your bank, broker or other nominee will not be able to vote your shares with respect to certain of the proposals at the Annual Meeting. We urge you to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares in accordance with the Board's recommendations.

What is the deadline for voting my shares if I do not vote in person at the Annual Meeting?

Votes via the Internet must be received prior to 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 25, 2026 (5:59 a.m. Irish Standard Time and 8:59 a.m. Gulf Standard Time on June 26, 2026). Votes by mail must be received by the judge of elections at the Annual Meeting prior to the closing of the polls at the Annual Meeting.

Can I change my vote or revoke my proxy?

Even if you execute a proxy, you retain the right to revoke it and to change your vote by notifying us at any time before your proxy is voted. Mere attendance at the meeting will not revoke a proxy. Such revocation may be effected by following the instructions for voting on your proxy card or voting instruction form. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by proxies, if received in time, will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. However, if you are shareholder of record, delivery of a proxy would not preclude you from attending and voting in person at the meeting convened and in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.

If the Annual Meeting is postponed or adjourned for any reason, at any subsequent reconvening of the Annual Meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as the proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the Annual Meeting (except for any proxies that have at that time effectively been revoked or withdrawn), even if the proxies had been effectively voted on the same or any other matter at a previous Annual Meeting.

Who is paying for the expenses involved in preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement?

All of the expenses involved in preparing, assembling and mailing these proxy materials and all costs of soliciting proxies will be paid by us. In addition to the solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited by our officers and other employees by telephone or in person. Such persons will receive no compensation for their services other than their regular salaries. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the shares held of record by such persons, and we may reimburse such persons for reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by them in forwarding solicitation materials. In addition, the Company has engaged MacKenzie Partners to assist in the solicitation of proxies and provide related advice and informational support for a fee of $40,000 plus reimbursement of reasonable and customary documented expenses.

Director Qualifications – General

Directors are responsible for overseeing our business consistent with their fiduciary duty to the Company. This significant responsibility requires highly-skilled individuals with various qualities, attributes and professional experience. The Board believes that there are general requirements for service on our Board that are applicable to all directors and that there are other skills and experience that should be represented on the Board as a whole but not necessarily by each director. When evaluating candidates for nomination as new directors, the Board considers the qualifications of director candidates individually and in the broader context of the Board's overall composition and our current and future needs.

In its assessment of each potential candidate, including those recommended by shareholders, the Board considers the nominee's judgment, integrity, experience, independence, understanding of our business or other related industries and such other factors the Board determines are pertinent in light of the current needs of the Board. The Board also takes into account the ability of a director to devote the time and effort necessary to fulfill his or her responsibilities to us.

The Board requires that each director be a recognized person of high integrity with a proven record of success in his or her field. Each director must demonstrate innovative thinking, familiarity with and respect for corporate governance requirements and practices, an appreciation of multiple cultures and a commitment to sustainability and to dealing responsibly with social issues. In addition to the qualifications required of all directors, the Board assesses intangible qualities including the individual's ability to ask difficult questions and, simultaneously, to work collegially.
